THE BUILD

What's included

A 5-page site built to showcase what The Transaction Club does and build trust with real estate agents — designed to bring in leads without requiring you to be hands-on.

HERO FEATURE

HOME

Claim your free closing gift

Right in the hero section — agents land on the page and see the offer immediately. A short embedded form captures their name, address, and the listing address, so you can send them a closing gift once a file is complete. Your reviews section will live on this page. Since you don't have a Google Business Profile yet, we'll set that up as part of getting everything ready behind the scenes — the section will fill in as reviews come in.
